From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 24.

Vienna, January 9.

ON the 7th the Assembly of the Estates of the Lower Austria was open'd here with the usual Ceremonies, and the Count de Buccelini Grand Chancellor made a Speech to them, in which after having represented to them the dangerous Situation of Affairs, he exhorted them to give the Emperor Supplies suitable to the urgency of the Occasion. And then his Imperial Majesty made a short Speech. The Count d'Abhnsperg, Marthal of the Province, rhturn'd thanks to the Emperor for his Speech, and assur'd him in the Name of the Estates, that they were dispos'd to give him intire Satisfaction in all he had propos'd to them, and even to Sacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of his August House and of their Country, in this dangerous Juncture. 'Tis reported that Prince Esterhasi Palatine of Hungary has made new Offers to the Rebels, to use his utmost Interest with his Imperial Majesty in their Favour, and has sent the following Propositions in writing to Count Berezeni, I. That he makes no manner of Doubt he shall be able to procure them a general Amnesty. II. That they shall immediately be exempted from all Impôts. III. And that within a Month, a General Diet shall be call'd, in which the Nobility of Hungary may come to fit Resolutions preparatory to an Accommodation: But the Count has answer'd, that he could do nothing without P.Ragotski, whom he would acquaint with the Proposals. They write from Transilvania, that Gen. Rabutin has caus'd 2 of the Judges of that Principality and a Captain to be beheaded, being all 3 convicted of holding Intelligence with the Rebels, who grow daily more and more numerous on the Frontiers of Transilvania.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 22.

Vienna. Jan. 9. The Count de Buccelini in the Speech he made at the opening of the Assembly of the Estates of Austria, very pathetically represented the extream Danger of the Common Cause, as well with respect to the Empire as to the Hereditary Countries, and the Necesity of speedily and largely supplying his Imperial Majesty, at this time, when the Interest of the Sovereign is inseparable from that of his Subjects. The Chancellor made no particular mention of the Elector of Bavaria; judging it sufficient to put the Estates in mind, That they could never be under a gentler Government, than that of the August House of Austria, and in particular of the Emperor Leopold, who is in the 47th Year of his Reign, and has given them so many Proofs of his Fetherly Affection.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 26.

Vienna, Jan. 12. Mons. Brillant, an Officer in Prince Eugene's Regiment, arriv'd here yesterday with a Letter from Count Berezeni, in which 'tis said, he signifies to Prince Eugene, that the Nobility of Hungary have taken Arms only to recover their just Rights; and that they are readily dispos'd to treat with the Emperor, provided some certain Potentates be made Guarantees of the Agreement that shall be made; which the Imperial Court appears unwilling to yield to. Mons. Brillant reports, that the Troops of the Malecontents are made up of Men able for Service; that they are under a good Discipline; and are well provided with all things necessary. Count Schlick is come hither from Presbourg, Count John Palfi is appointed to command in his room. P.Eugene has made very considerable Offers to Count Berezeni to draw him off from the Malecontents, but without Success. There is Advice from Temiswaer, that the Garrison of that Place had mutinied for their Pay, and in their first Fury cut in pieces 5 of their chief Officers. Such Numbrs of Men (who exp'res great Eagerness to give Proofs of their Affection to the Emperor and to their Country) come hither to offer themselves to be listed in the Troops of Horse and Foot which are now rais'g; that the Officers choose only those that are ablest for Service; and if they continue to come in as fast one Month longer, it will be easie to increase the Army at Presbourg to 25000 Men. The Nobility of the Lower Austria are sending hither the Men and Horses they are to furnish in proportion to their Rank and Estates; for example, a Privy Councillor is to furnish 3 Men and Horses with their Arms and Mounting; and a Gentlemen of the Bed-chamber 2; which all together will, 'tis computed, make up about 2000 Horse. The University has agreed to furnish 200 Horse and 300 Foot. And our Burghers 2000 Foot and a certain Number of Horse.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 29.

Vienna, Jan. 16. Yesterday the Regiment of Dragoons of Bareith consisting of 1200 Men, and 800 Danish Horse, arriv'd here in their way to Hungary. To day a Proclamation was publish'd in the Name of his Imperial Majesty, ordering all Butchers, Fishermen, and Watermen, to take Arms, and hold themselves in a Readines to march at the first notice, under the Command of the Count of Wells, Vice-Governour of the Lower Austria. They write from Prague, that they are rais'g 20000 Men, with all Expedition, in Bohemia and Moravia, to be sent into Hungary. They write from Presbourg, that a Body of the Rebels advanc'd lately to the very Gates of that Place, but the Garrison fallid out and charg'd them so vigorously, that 400 of the Rebels were kill'd, and the rest put to flight.

From the Amsterdam Courant Jan. 29.

Vienna, Jan. 16. On the 11th 10000 of the Malecontents pass'd the Danube over the Ice near Komore into the Lower Hungary, and advanc'd within 4 or 5 Miles of Oedenburg; a great many of the Inhabitants of that part of the Country have joyn'd them. The Imperial Horse being in want of Forrage is to return from Hungary into Austria. We have Advice that the Swedes are marching towards the Frontiers of Silesia, under pretence of making an Expedition into Saxony. Count Berezeni has caus'd a printed Declaration in the Hungarian and Bohemian Languages to be dispers'd in Moravia, in which he invites the Inhabitants of that Country to joyn with the Hungarians; this has had such an Effect, that the Governor of that Province has been oblig'd to send advice to Prince Eugene that 600 Moravians are already got together and have committed great Outrages, whereupon a Regiment of Danish Dragoons will be sent thither from hence.

Vienna, Jan. 19. A strong Body of the Malecontents is advanc'd near to Oedenburg; in their march they plunder'd some Villages. Count Caroli sent 6 of his Officers to Oedenburg to offer that Town the Protection of the Malecontents; which Officers were 2 Hours in the Townhouse, and reported that the Malecontents had an Army of 17000 Men at Papa, within 2 Leagues of Oedenburg; they return'd without any Answer to their Message. But we foresee that Town must accept the Protection offer'd by the Malecontents, as well because most of the Towns in lower Hungary, even some that are within 4 Miles of this City, have submitted to Count Caroli, as because there are no Soldiers garrison'd in it. A strong Party of the Rebels advanc'd lately, to Trentschin and summon'd it to surrender, intending when they were possess'd of it to make an irruption from thence into Moravia, but the Governor sallied out and kill'd 150 of them, whereupon they set fire to the Suburbs and retir'd. We are in pain to know how Affairs go in Turkey, from whence we have had no Letters these 2 Months; nor shall we be able to come by any very easily, because the Rebels are in the Way.

Vienna, Jan. 19. The Imperial Court having sent 3 several Expresses to P. Eugene of Savoy, his Highness return'd hither yesterday, and soon after his arrival appear'd in the Council. He has left 1000 Foot and 100 Horse in Presburg, and has order'd the rest of the Troops to post themselves on the River Leita to defend the Frontiers of Austria. He has left the Command of them to Gen. Palfi, on whom the Emperor has conferr'd the Government of Croatia, vacant by the Death of Count Bathani. We have Advice that Eysenstadt, the Town where Prince Esterhasi usually resides, has been oblig'd to put it self into the Protection of the Rebels; and that the Inhabitants of several little Towns and Villages belonging to P. Esterhasi, who were formerly compell'd to profess the Roman Catholick Religion, are all gone over to the Malecontents. Besides the Body commanded by Count Caroli, Count Berezeni lies with another about Tirnau, and P. Ragotski with a third near Tockay.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 26.

Vienna, Jan 12. The Count de Lamberg, who was sent from hence towards Passau, being on his Way, informed that Place was taken, is return'd hither. The Inhabitants of Lintz in the Upper Austria begin to retire hither, with their best Effects. 'Tis talk'd the Emperor will go from hence to Prague in Bohemia, or to Breslau in Silesia. A certain Baron who was lately brought Prisoner hither, for attempting to surprize Passau, has been beheaded privately.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 2.

Vienna, Jan. 19. On the 16th a Messenger of Prince Ragotski's, having Letters about him for the Elector of Bavaria, was brought in hither. 'Tis said that Prince in those Letters congratulates the Elector of Bavaria on his Conquests, and desires to be certified whether his Electoral Highness keeps to his Resolution of advancing as far as this City by the 27th of January. An Express is arriv'd here from Upper Austria, and a Deputy from the Peasants, who have inform'd the Imperial Court, that the Elector of Bavaria has demanded of the Country lying on the side of the Ens 600000 Florins, 100000 Rations of Oats, with Hay and Meal in proportion; which has exasperated the Peasants, and made them resolve to put themselves under the Command of the Generals Groenveld and Tramp to make head against the Bavarians. This Deputy was sent to desire Succours of Regular Troops and Ammunition of War. Accordingly some Ammunition is sent to them, and the Deputy is gone back with Order to assure the Peasants that they shall be exempted from all Taxes for a Year, and that Succours shall be sent to them as soon as possible. Yesterday came an Express from Gen. Groenveld, bringing Advice, that upon the E. of Bavaria's advancing to Effersding, a few Miles from Lintz, he had thought best to retire to the Ens.

From the Danube, Jan. 23. There are Advices from several Places, that the E. of Bavaria has possess'd himself of Lintz, has demanded several hundred thousand Florins Contribution of the Hereditary Countries, has put his Troops into Quarters in the Towns nearest to the Danube, and is expected this Week at Munich.
